

Everything Else Follows...

“I am writing these things to warn you about those who want to lead you astray. But you have received the Holy Spirit, and he lives within you, so you don’t need anyone to teach you what is true. For the Spirit teaches you everything you need to know, and what he teaches is true—it is not a lie. So just as he has taught you, remain in fellowship with Christ.”

The Apostle John | 1 John 2:26-27 (NLT)

“Ouch!” A bolt of lightning shot through my head. It passed quickly—but I knew something wasn’t right.

I was mid-pull-up, turned my head... and bang. I dropped, took a breath, and tried to walk it off. The sharp pain faded, but a headache lingered. And lingered. The next day... and the next...

My mind raced. My dad had a brain aneurysm—was that happening to me?

Weeks went by. Searching. Wondering. Finally, I went to the ER for a CT scan.

All clear—pew!

Some relief came, but the pain didn't leave.

Maybe my neck—a misalignment? I visited a recommended chiropractor. This guy was different—no cracking or twisting. Just pinpointed pressure behind my ear.

His goal? To realign my Atlas—the bone that, when aligned, leads the rest of the body to follow.

Time will tell.

But I couldn't help seeing the parallel...

How often do we feel “off” in ways we can't diagnose? We push through. Adapt. Manage the symptoms—but the feeling lingers.

*“For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children.”
The Apostle Paul (Romans 8:16)*

Yet like this chiropractor, the Holy Spirit works differently—applying pinpoint pressure, Spirit to spirit. His goal? To realign us with this truth: we are God's children—like Jesus, yet keeping our God-given uniqueness. When our spirits are aligned, Everything Else Follows...

*Reflect: Do I feel like something is off?

Like my neck injury, misalignment often expresses itself painfully.

“For the Lord corrects those he loves, just as a father corrects a child in whom he delights.” (Proverbs 3:12)

Yet while facing it, the gentle voice of the Spirit presses our spirits. This act—the heart of God applied—is powerful, multi-dimensional, and prevailing. It's the Divine Wisdom of God—the expression of Divine Love in us, on us, and for us, revealed most fully in Jesus' death on the cross.

“But to those called by God to salvation, both Jews and Gentiles, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.” The Apostle Paul (1 Corinthians 1:24)

The Spirit’s Realigning Press leads us to align with Divine Love and Everything Else Follows...

Consider: I must be aligned with Divine Love to receive my Mission.

How easy—and costly—it is to dwell on our correction and resist the Realigning Press. Avoidance, or trying to manage the symptoms is futile!

“As you endure this divine discipline, remember that God is treating you as his own children. Who ever heard of a child who is never disciplined by its father? If God doesn’t discipline you as he does all of his children, it means that you are illegitimate and are not really his children at all. Since we respected our earthly fathers who disciplined us, shouldn’t we submit even more to the discipline of the Father of our spirits, and live forever?

For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God’s discipline is always good for us, so that we might share in his holiness. No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it’s painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.” (Hebrews 12:7-11)

Instead, focus on the Divine Love driving it and the overflowing harvest it offers. You’ll gain the vantage point of God and be positioned to serve fruitfully as his child.

Your Mission—what God has left you on earth to fulfill—is a fruit of the Realigning Press. Want to know it? You must be aligned with Divine Love to receive it. Your Mission becomes clear only when you see the world (and yourself) through the lens of Divine Love—as God sees it. Search for Divine Wisdom as for hidden treasure. It leads to Divine Love. Imagine: The Refining Press keeping me aligned with Jesus' Mission.

Jesus stood before the disciples to give them the Great Commission. They'd seen the risen Jesus many times—yet still doubted. It was mysterious, overwhelming—surreal! Yet they sacrificed their lives for his Mission, sustained by the ongoing press of the Spirit affirming the Divine Love they'd witnessed.

"Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him—but some of them doubted!" The Apostle Matthew (Matthew 28:16-17)

Once you receive your Mission, worldly forces will try to distract, mislead, and sow doubt. Even having seen the world through God's eyes, you may still wonder, "Is this really what he wants me to do? Does my life matter?"

It feels surreal, yet Jesus calls you to sacrifice for his Mission. Praise the Lord for the Spirit's ongoing, Realigning Press—his affirmation of the truth keeps you in fellowship with Christ, his Mission, and...
