

Overruled!

"Three things will last forever—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love."

The Apostle Paul | 1 Corinthians 13:13 (NLT)

Are worldly laws keeping you from fully experiencing God?

There are many laws of the land that we grow accustomed to… perhaps most familiarly, the laws of nature & physics—gravity and that sort of thing. Having developed a practical understanding of how they work, it's easy to believe that these laws have the final word; that nothing could overrule their power. How can you defy gravity? How can you prevent a magnet from attracting iron? How can you heal a person dying of terminal illness? You can't, right?

If we accept that the laws of the land are the be-all/end-all and cannot be overruled, then we limit God. Fortunately, God has structured his creation with an authoritative hierarchy. Higher authority can overrule lower laws and worldly obstacles can be overcome, much like a higher court can overrule a lower court's ruling.

I first experienced this a number of years ago in my financial life when I faithfully began to follow this proverb:

"Give freely and become more wealthy; be stingy and lose everything." (Proverbs 11:24)

…Makes no earthly sense, but it proved true—a bit mysterious! I can only explain by saying…

My faith led God to overrule the world's financial laws—a miracle!

What obstacles might God overrule if you faithfully lived as though his promises were true?

Reflect: What worldly law is limiting my view of God?

The Bible is rife with stories of miracles—our term for what happens when a higher authority overrules lower laws.

As the Israelites stood staring at the Red Sea, with a vast horde of Egyptians barreling down on them, the Red Sea suddenly split open, defying the laws of physics. What overruled the physical laws?

Or when Jesus fed the 5,000… how can you get so much food, with basketfuls left over, from a few fish and loaves? What overruled this supply-and-demand crisis?

"Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. (Mark 6:34)

Beyond these, when Jesus died on the cross and subsequently rose from the grave, what overruled his physical death?

"This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins." The Apostle John (1 John 4:10)

In each case, Divine Love—the Love of God—overruled the physical laws. What greater miracle is there than such Love overruling the seemingly immovable law of death that so many fear?

Consider: Align with the One who Overrules!

In 1 Corinthians, Paul makes it clear that Divine Love is supreme. In fact, John goes so far as to say…

"God is love, and all who live in love live in God, and God lives in them." (1 John 4:16)

Divine Love permeates God's holiness, righteousness, and perfect justice. He so embodies Love that his power aligns with it. When we align our lives with him, he works through us to accomplish his purposes.

When we live in Love, we live in God, and he lives in us. So when we serve others as an expression of God's Love, we are aligning ourselves with God himself… his eternal purposes. And when we are aligned with him, the worldly and spiritual obstacles standing in the way of his purposes can be overruled by his authority.

Love itself doesn't give us power over circumstances. It aligns us with the One who has power over them.

Imagine: My Mission is aligned with God. Steeped with Divine Love—it's full of power.

When Jesus was asked what mattered most, he identified two commands above all others: love God completely and love your neighbor as yourself. He then made the remarkable statement that the entire law of God and all the demands of the prophets rest on these two commands.

“You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. A second is equally important: ‘love your neighbor as yourself.’ The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.’”
Jesus Christ (Matthew 22:37-40)

He’s not merely asking us to be loving people; he’s calling us to align our lives with him and his purposes—to love others as he does. And as we pursue our reason for being here—our Mission—Divine Love must permeate it.

So when the world tells you that you don’t have enough, Divine Love reminds you that God is your provider.

When fear tells you that you can’t, Divine Love reminds you to trust God.

When worldly laws tell you that the obstacle is immovable, Divine Love reminds you that God has the final word.

And when the world tells you that death is the end, Divine Love points to the empty tomb.

We don't know what obstacles will stand between us and advancing our Mission. But we can align ourselves with the final authority who can trump lower authority.

God is Love. Love is at the heart of his authority. And when we align our lives, our Mission, with him, what looks the final from a worldly standpoint can be…

Overruled!
